OLD ENGLAND:
OR,
The CONSTITUTIONAL JOURNAL.

By JEFFREY BROADBOTTOM, of Covent-Garden, Esq;

SATURDAY, APRIL 19, 1746. [N°. 155.]

I SHALL for the Entertainment of my Readers, give them this Week an Extract from a very extraordinary Pamphlet, entitled, The Peace-Offering; which is supposed to be a Speech pronounc'd before a certain Assembly by Methuselah Whitelock, Esq;

Mr. PRESIDENT,

WHILE Associations were set on Foot by the youthful and more vigorous Part of the Community in Support of our august Prince and Government, by Arms, it became us, tho' unable to wield the Sword, or mount the neighing Steed, not to sit idle Spectators of the Confusions of our Country, but to act in a Sphere best suited to our advanc'd Years and long Experience. This, Sir, you are sensible, was the genuine and first Motive of the Institution of our Society: And I may say without Exaggeration, that we have not been hitherto less useful to our Sovereign and Fellow Subjects, by the Hints and grave Advices of several of our Members, than other associated Bodies.

Need I, Sir, enumerate the many shrewd and profound Schemes broach'd by those of our Society skill'd in Arms, in regard to the Militia, and other the like good and notable Purposes? Need I, on the other hand, mention the many grave and religious Advices that have flow'd from the learn'd Pens of such of our Members as have a Cast to Piety and Religion, for bettering and reforming the Community? The whole Nation can witness how zealously they have labour'd toward the Eradication of Infidelity, Immorality and Corruption, spread of late Years over almost the whole Face of our Island, so fam'd of old for Piety and Holiness. The Suppression of Luxury and Excess has been their peculiar Care; and that not so much from a Spirit of Parsimony natural to old Age, as from a Sense of the Necessity of employing our Fortunes, as well as Lives, in the Defence of Liberty, in such Times as the present.

'Tis well known, that Fervency and Zeal have prevail'd among us over Sloth and Lassitude, the natural Concomitants of Age. See the various late Publications for putting Vice out of Countenance. How numerous and pompous the Advertisements in our daily Papers of Treatises attacking the growing Sins and Evils of the Age? How tenaciously and gloriously have we maintain'd the Argument against Italian Operas? But tho' it has been prov'd, that these musical Follies had their Origin in Paganism and Popery; yet, Sir, how ignominiously have the Public turn'd a deaf Ear to the Voice of Reason, to gratify a sensual, vicious Taste? How shamefully have a Protestant People, in this unmeaning Indulgence of one Sense, stoop'd to the Yoke of Rome, whence these soft Inchantments of Sound have been imported to us for the Purpose of Slavery? Gods! that a brave and rough Nation, the Pride and Bulwark of the Reformation, should thus scandalously bow to the Scarlet W——e, when France is on the Verge of subjecting our best Protestant Allies, the Dutch, to her Power; and an open and too successful Rebellion is in our Bowels at Home!

One cannot help admiring, in many Instances, tho' he detests the Refinements of the Court of Rome. She conveys her soft Sing-song to us here in the Southern Part of our Island, to render us effeminate and inactive; and to the Northern she sends a Pupil of her rearing, but who, from the Robustness of his Constitution, seems rather to be rear'd in Siberia than the Campania of Rome. Is it not evident, that this sinewy, hardy, young Roman was brought up from the Cradle with a View to fit him for the Leader of the rough, desperate People who have foil'd our Troops at Preston-pans and Falkirk?

And what was it but Music, infectious Italian Music, that has occasion'd these shameful Defeats? Before our common People were acquainted with the enervating Sounds of Rome, they were rough, they were brave and victorious. There were none of the squeaking Sons of Italian Ha, ha, in King William's Armies; nor in Queen Anne's, 'till after the Peace of Utrecht: And the Victors of Cressy and Agincourt, tho' Papists, were no Admirers of Roman Sonatas. But how fatally has the Scene been chang'd in later Days! Most of our modern Cockade-Dappers are Warblers of Italian Airs, and their Men are their humble Imitators. The Infection has descended from the dignify'd Red Coat, subscribing to the Opera, down to those placed as Guards round St. James's Park, where, from each Centry Box, one may hear, of a Summer's Night, the shrill Note of a corpulent, dronish Italian Gelding.

But, Sir, the Labours of this grave Society have not been confin'd to opposing the present foppish Gout for Italian Music, they have extended to the Correction of the modern vitiated Taste in various other Instances. You may remember how learned a Dissertation was pronounc'd at our last Meeting, by one of our Members, at present usefully employ'd in projecting an artificial Thunder that shall frighten the rebellious Highlanders from the Use of the Broad-Sword, and from their attempting to seize our Field-Artillery before we can make Use of it ourselves: That learned Discourse you know, Sir, was proving, that all our present Troubles might have been prevented, if his Advice had been follow'd some Years ago, for prohibiting the Importation of Raree-Shows into this Kingdom by the Natives of the Duchy of Savoy.

That laborious, ingenious Speculatist told you, Sir, that tho' these foreign itinerant Virtuosi might be the natural-born Subjects of his Sardinian Majesty, a Prince in our Alliance, yet that it was probable they were train'd up by France, and sent over to us by that artful Court, to vitiate and corrupt our Youth, whom they chiefly practise upon. And, Sir, you may remember our sagacious Brother went farther, in supposing that even his Sardinian Majesty himself might have had his particular Views in permitting such Droves of his Subjects to leave his Dominions as have swarm'd here among us of late Years. That subtile Reasoner told you, that tho' the Words Hereditary Right, were look'd upon, as they ought to be, as vague, obsolete, and senseless at London, they may have been thought of more Significancy at Turin; and that there might have been, for that Reason, a political View in letting loose upon us here in England such Flights of Savoyards, who may be look'd upon as so many Popish Missionaries to propagate Idolatry and Vice among Protestants.

I may venture asserting, that no Body of People in the Nation have more arduously, or more usefully employ'd their Talents and Time than this Society, since its Institution. No Project or Invention has escaped their Notice, for annoying the common Enemy, and suppressing the Rebellion. What could be of greater Use than the Swimming Girdle, invented by one of our Members, for swimming into the Ports of Boulogne and Calais, in order to set Fire to the Transports there? And, Sir, be it remember'd, to the Honour of the ingenious Inventor, that if the bravest and most vigilant Commander of any Age or Nation, had not been abruptly discharg'd, the French would not, by this Time, have a single Skiff on the Coast of the Channel. This, Sir, you know to be a Truth as Naked as any published since the Fall of that gallant Officer.

The Mention of that brave, rough Triton, brings one other Invention of ours to my Mind, which without doubt must be of infinite Use to the Public, as it has been recommended by that indefatigable Commander. Flags on the Steeples of the Churches on the Coast of Sussex and Kent, would not be more visible by Day than Lights in Iron Pots by Night. This Sir, is a † Naked Truth, how cover'd soever it may seem to dull Apprehensions.

But, Sir, without troubling you or this Company with a more minute Detail of the many useful Productions issuing from the Pens of our Members since the present Rebellion, let it suffice to say, that the celebrated Mr. Veteran, so famed throughout these Nations, and so rever'd by our Soldiery, is a worthy Limb of our loyal Body. What could be more seasonable or salutary than that brave, rough Man's Scheme? See how artfully, tho' in the plainest Words ever put together, he has sweetened all Orders of Men in the Nation (except one, of whom I shall take Notice presently) to part with the dearest Thing in the World, except Liberty and Religion, which last you know, Sir, to be dearer to the Aged and their Pastors than Money itself. He has work'd up the Spirit of Generosity among the most noted Oeconomists of the Nation; proving herein, that Flannel outwardly apply'd, may keep the Flesh as warm as the Spirit within.

I confess, Sir, it has puzzled me to find a Reason why a Set of Men, the richest in the Nation, and the most interested in the Support of the C——h, should be the only Men that have not contributed towards the brave Veteran's Scheme: And except one poor Kentish Curate, who probably might have had an easier Cure in View, I don't remember that Offerings came to Guildhall, towards the Veteran Scheme, from any but Lay Hands. Perhaps these enlighten'd Guides of the stupid Flock, may have thought that a Contribution in Paper was equal a one in Gold. But if I am rightly inform'd, by a venerable Member of our Society, who had a very eminent Command lately in the North, one Quart of humming Ale will first up a Soldier against Popery, more than a Cart load of S——ns, tho' wrote by the most dignify'd of the sacred Order.

One would think that the least a People could do, who are exempt from fighting, would be to contribute towards paying those who fight against the Religion, which that passive Country dread so much. Or is it only from the Pulpit that Popery is to be attack'd by those who seem to have most to fear from its Introduction?

But, Mr. Chairman, have not some of our sp——l Champions exceeded a little of late in their Attacks upon this Monster? To say, that it was the Reverse of C——y, methinks could be no Compliment to our own holy Lamb, which we can't deny to have been originally sprung from, or at least related to the Wolf in Sheep's Clothing, that has been, for some Years past, creeping to upon us in soft Senates and Rarre shows. Old Dryden sung to us, in our greener Years, that P——ts of all Religions were the same. But, Sir, by that divine Bard's Leave, the Saying does not hold equally good in all Nations and Religions, if it be true, that the Romish Clergy have contributed to lend us the Villas of I——y and F——ce, and that our own have not paid a Shilling voluntarily towards beating him out.

Yet tho' we have not been able to mould the Hearts of our Guides by divine Institution, as we have those of their Flock, we have had so great Success in serving the Government in various Instances of late, that it can be no longer doubted, that such a grey headed Society as ours, would be of public Utility in all Commonwealths. Men grown up to our Years, or rather, Men that have out grown their Passions, have their Minds freer, and better adapted to Thought and Reflection, than those whole Veins flow with the fermented Stream of youthful Blood. How else but by being govern'd by the cool and cautious Politics of Seventy and upwards, has the Court of Rome been able to thrive above all others in the Spheres of Intrigue and Negociation? Has not the important Fortress of Edinburgh Castle been preserv'd ever since the ignominious Defeat of Preston-pans, by the cool Courage and Conduct of Seventy odd!

Let us therefore, Sir, firmly adhere to the Intention of our first Institution, which was to reject unanimously all Candidates under Seventy, however dignify'd or recommended. The Good we have done, and the Honours we have gain'd, will naturally inflame the Hearts of some ambitious Couriers, and perhaps of some of those who assume the glorious Title of the Champions of Liberty and the Public; but, Sir, let me hope that Corruption will never be able to make its Way to a Board partly established to put Venality out of Countenance. Let not Wealth or Title, not the Favour of the Great, not a Pretence to Virtue, impose upon a Set of Men, that have all declared, as we have, spontaneously, to serve our Country gratis with our latest Breath, and last Drop of Ink. If we would answer the Ends of our Institution, let not Youth, on any Consideration whatever, be permitted to obtrude itself among us.

War, Bustle, and Confusion, are the natural Objects of Youth and Inadvertency, while Ease, Tranquility, and Enjoyment, are those of Age and Experience. Did we once suffer the Fire of Youth to mix with the Phlegm of Age, who among us could answer that we should be able to bring about the great and laudable Work of Peace, so desirable in itself, and so avowedly the principal Object of our Association, as appears evidently by the Epithet Pacific, we chose to be distinguish'd by?

'Tis manifest, from all our Debates of late, that the whole Attention of this venerable Board is fix'd on Peace; and what more amiable Object can we have in View, whose Breasts no longer glow with the illusory Fires of Ambition and false Glory? But here among us appear no such destructive Flames, for by the several Epithets the Schemes produc'd To night, 'tis obvious we all seek the same Blessing, tho' we take different Roads to come at it.

Speedily will be published,

COUNTRY NEWS.

Bristol, April 12. Wednesday Afternoon ended the Assize, or General Goal-Delivery for this City and County, held before the Right Worshipful William Barnes, Esq. Mayor, the Worshipful Sir Michael Foster, Knt. and the Worshipful the Aldermen of this City, when the three following Persons receiv'd Sentence of Death, viz. Sarah Roberts (alias Sal Baker, said to have given Two Guineas in London to learn the Art of picking Pockets) for picking the Pocket of Mary Saunders of a Crown Piece, and other Money. —— It seems this Creature, some little Time before she was committed, went into the Shop of a Shoemaker of this City, to buy a Pair of Shoes, and while the Shoemaker's Wife was trying them on, she pick'd her Pocket of six Crown Pieces, and paid for the Shoes out of one of them.

John Robinson, for uttering and publishing a forg'd Bill of Exchange, knowing the same to be forg'd, with Intention to defraud Edward French in this City and County.

And, John Barry, (committed Jan. 18,) for causing and procuring to be falsly made, forged, and counterfeited, the last Will and Testament of James Barry, deceas'd, and of uttering and publishing the same, knowing it to be forged.——The Evidence against him consisted but of two Persons, viz. Peter Haynes, and a Boy, who at the Time of the Fact lived with the above Prisoner.——The Substance of Haynes's Evidence was, That he filled up a blank Will, after the forg'd Mark was put to it; and that Barry's Wife put the Pen in the dead Man's Hand, and guided the same herself: That it was the Practice of the House to get Sailors to sign to blank Wills, and left with Barry to fill them up after they were gone, as he pleased; and that he had done so to several Hundreds of Seamen's Wills by Order of the said John Barry. —— The Boy depos'd, in Substance, That he was drawn in to be a Witness to the said Will, both by Haynes and Barry; who also, in a manner, forc'd him to go with them before a Master in Chancery, to swear with them, That the said Will was the genuine one of James Barry, deceas'd.—The Prisoner brought to his Defence two Women (who, it seems, are Publicans in Kinsale, and came from thence with the Prizes) who swore that they both were present when the Deceased made his Will to the Prisoner, and that they themselves lifted him up in the Bed to sign the said Will, and that they saw him deliver it to the Prisoner as his Act and Deed. —— But notwithstanding this, after a Trial of eight Hours, he was found guilty of Felony and Forgery, and receiv'd Sentence of Death with the other two, who are since repriev'd, and only Barry ordered for Execution, which, 'tis believ'd, will be on Friday Se'nnight.

John Olmotherly, found guilty of speaking disrespectfully of his present Majesty King George the Second was fin'd 6 s. 8 d. and six Months Imprisonment, and to find Sureties for twelve Months after.

David Taylor, for publickly drinking the Pretender's Eldest Son's Health, by the Name of Charles Stewart; and also, for asserting, that he is the right Heir to the Crown of England, and several other Treasonable Practices, was fin'd 6 s. 8 d. six Months Imprisonment, and to find Sureties for Twelve Months after.

And three were cast for Transportation.

LONDON.

From the LONDON GAZETTE.

Whitehall, April 15. An Express, which arrived on Sunday last from his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, brought the following Advices.

Aberdeen, April 6. His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland will begin his March To morrow towards Inverness, where he proposes to be on the 17th Instant. All the Intelligence we have had for these two Days past about the Rebels, has been only a Confirmation of their Confusion and Mutinies; and we hear that they desert from all Parts. Captain M'Kay, Lord Reay's Son, and Sir Henry Monro, Son to the late Sir Robert, both Captains in Lord Loudon's Regiment, are just come hither with Letters from Capt. OBrian of the Sheerness Man of War now off this Place, giving an Account, That after chasing the Hazard Sloop (called by the French the Prince Charles Snow) above 56 Leagues, he drove her ashore, and obliged the French and Spaniards who were in her, to quit her, and to land, which they did with five Chests of Money, to the Value of 12,000 l. and upwards, in order to join the Rebels; but the Lord Reay, in whose Country they were landed, and at whose House Capt. M'Kay, Sir Henry Munro, Lord Charles Gordon, and Capt. M'Leod, with some other Officers of Lord Loudon's Regiment were, with about 80 Men of the same Regiment, who were drove thither by the Rebels, marched out and attacked them, and after killing three or four, and dangerously wounding eight, took the remaining 156 Officers, and Soldiers, Sailors, Prisoners, who were immediately embarked on board the Sheerness; and the Prize, with the Highland Officers and Men, who made this Capture, are now here. The Captain of the Sheerness also picked up, in the Orkneys, a Ship of Boston in New England, commanded by one Sinclair, who had some Arms and Ammunition on board, and had put himself into the Power and Service of the Pretender. His Mate and Men had before quitted him; and upon the Sheerness coming into the Harbour of Stromness, he, and Highlanders who were with him, got off in the Boat, but Capt. OBrien has brought off the Ship, with what Arms and Ammunition were on board. The Prisoners on board the Sheerness are ordered to be sent to Berwick. There is one Col. Brown on board, who made his Escape from Carlisle, after the Surrender of the Town was agreed upon.

The Money, which was landed out of the Hazard Sloop, was taken by Lord Reay's Men.

The Day after Capt. O Brien took Possession of the said Sloop, he found on board her, 14 Chests of Pistols and Sabres, with 13 Barrels of Powder, design'd for the Use of the Rebels.

Aberdeen, April 7. The March of the Army for Inverness is deferr'd till To morrow. We hear from Dunkeld, that the Rebels having raised the Siege of Blair, and retired with the greatest Precipitation upon the Approach of the Troops sent to relieve that Place, the Prince of Hesse was to return to Perth as this Day, and to encamp there with all the six Hessian Battalions, except 500 Men that are to remain at Taybridge; that St. George's Dragoons were to be cantoned in and about Huntingtower, and the two other Regiments were to repair to Crief.

A List of Prisoners on Board his Majesty's Ship the Sheerness, Capt. O Brien, who belonged to the Hazard Sloop, call'd by the French the Prince Charles Snow.

Col. Brown, Knight of St. Louis, Commander of the Picquet, and all the Land Officers on this Expedition in the French Service.
Capt. Talbot commanded the Prince Charles Snow, in the Service of France.
Capt. M'Mahon commanded the Picquet of Berwick's Regiment.
Capt. St. Clair, of Virst's Regiment, Spanish Service.
Capt. Rogers, of Berwick's Regiment.
Edward Barnewall, William Barnewall, —— Nugent, —— Morris, } Lieutenants.
Capt. M'Mahon, of the Regiment of Hainault, French Service.
Capt. M'Pherson, Hibernian Regiment, Spanish Service.
Capt. Hay, Spanish Service.
Capt. Gould, Ultonica Regiment, Spanish Service.
Capt. O Farrel, Spanish Engineer.
Lieutenant Hynes, Ultonica Regiment, Spanish Service.
Lieutenant O Brian, Clare's Regiment, French Service.
Lieutenant Birmingham, Clare's Regiment.
O Byrn, the same Regiment.
Basile Barnewell, Royal Scotch, French Service.
Lieutenant Wyer, the same Regiment.
M. Chabbellard, a Gens d'Armes of the French King's Guard.
Lesly, who went as Pilot of the Ship, when she was carried to France, and came in the Prince Charles Snow, as Pilot or Master.
Blyth, who likewise went from Montrose, and returned in an Office on board this Ship.
Two Deserters, one from the Welch Fuzileers, and one from Bligh's.
The rest of the Sea Officers, and the Ship's Company, we have not any List of. In all, Land and Marine Officers, Soldiers and Seamen, there are 156 Prisoners.

Edinburgh, April 9. The French Privateer, said to have landed some Officers and Men in Lord Reay's Country, comes out to be the Hazard Sloop. Lord Reay, who arrived at Leith Yesterday, gives the following Account of her being taken.

On the 25th of March the Hazard Sloop was observed by Lord Reay and his People sailing up the Tongue Bay, and was soon follow'd by Capt. O Brien in the Sheerness, who immediately attack'd her. In the Engagement, the Hazard Sloop had several Men kill'd, besides a good many wounded, and not being able to maintain the Fight, she ran ashore on the Shallows, where the Sheerness could not follow, and there landed her Men and Money. Lord Reay's Son, with some other Officers, gather'd what Men they could get together, attacked those that landed from the Hazard Sloop, and, after killing five of them, took the rest Prisoners, and seized the Money, said to be 12,500 Guineas; but one Chest of it was missing, and another broke. Lord Reay and his Friends being apprehensive of a Visit from the Rebels, embarked with their Treasure and Prisoners, and arrived on Sunday Night at Aberdeen, with the Hazard Sloop; and in passing the Orkneys, Capt. O Brien brought along with him the Boston Ship, that was treacherously seiz'd by Capt. Sinclair for the Rebels. It is said, that Sir James Stuart of Burray has raised 300 Men in those Parts for the Rebels, who are plundering Earl Morton's Estate. Lord M'Leod was arrived in Caithness with 3 or 400 more, and endeavouring to raise greater Numbers. His Success is variously reported.

There were scarce any French, except Sailors, on board of the Hazard; the Officers and Soldiers are mostly Irish, and some Scotch, commanded by one Brown.

The three large Ships seen off Holy Island, appear now to be three Dutch Men of War sent to join Commodore Smith.

Whitehall, April 15. The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint George Sackville, Esq; commonly call'd Lord George Sackville, to be Colonel of the Regiment of Foot late under the Command of Brigadier General Bligh.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Lewis Dejean, Esq; to be Colonel of the Regiment of Foot, late under the Command of Sir Robert Monro, Bart. deceas'd.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Henry Conway, Esq; to be Colonel of the Regiment of Foot, late under the Command of Col. Francis Ligonier, deceased.

Last Wednesday the Right Worshipful Sir Simon Urling, Knt. Recorder of this City, made his Report to his Majesty of Matthew Henderson (Capt. Dalrymple's Footboy) for the Murder of his Lady; when the King was pleased to order him for Execution on Friday next, in the Middle of Cavendish Square, near the Place where he committed the Murder. He has made a full Confession of the Murder and Robbery. He is order'd to be hang'd in Chains near Shepherd's Bush.

Extract of a private Letter from Spey Mouth, April 12.

"This Morning his Royal Highness marched from Cullen, the Earl of Finlater's Seat, and arrived on the Banks of the Spey about One o'Clock, when we perceived four Bodies of the Rebels, with four white Colours, on the opposite Side: The Duke halted, to let the rest of the Army come up; which done, he order'd the Light Horse, the Campbell's and Grenadiers, to ford at one Place, and the Dragoons at another: His Grace the Duke of Kingston's Horse were the first that enter'd the Water, and as soon as they got to the other Side, drew their Swords, and went on a full Gallop up the Hill towards the Rebels, upon which they immediately fled, to the great Surprize of every Body, considering their advantageous Situation: But as their Designs cannot be known, and it taking up three Hours to pass the Foot over the Ford, his Royal Highness encamps this Night on the North of the Spey. We lost but one Man in fording; the Rebels were 2000 on the other Side of the River; they fired but two Shot.

Thursday twelve Pieces of Cannon were sent from Woolwich, to be erected on two Forts built by the Direction of General Sinclair, on the Coast of Sussex, for securing the Inhabitants against French Privateers.

Thursday General Ligonier review'd General Dowglass's Regiment of Foot on Croydon Common; at the same Time a Fellow who had frequently mutinied and deserted, after receiving 500 Lashes, was drumm'd out of the Regiment, with a Halter about his Neck.

On Monday last a Powder-Mill belonging to Mr. Bridges, at Yeovill in Surry, blew up by Accident, but happily no Persons lost their Lives, the Workmen having quitted it about an Hour before.

We hear from Northampton, that the Mayor's Plate of 40 Guineas Value, (now collecting in the said Town) will be run for on the old Course sometime next Month; the Particulars will be inserted in our next. The Collection is undertaken by two eminent Doctors.

We hear that the Two Brothers, Capt. Henry Moss, in Ballast for Norway from Ireland, was taken by a French Privateer of 20 Guns, and ransom'd.

We hear from Pembroke, that eight of the French Prisoners in that Town, going into the Fields to gather Sallad, in order to eat with Bread and Butter, they mistaking a certain Root, for wild Sellery, eat of it, when two of them died before they got home: The other six, falling into Fits, would probably have met with the same melancholy Fate, had they not been immediately relieved. One of those who lost his Life, being opened, his Inside was found mortify'd, and a large Extravasation in his Brain.

Wednesday 7-Night, about Ten o'Clock, a Fire happen'd at Westgate-House at Bath in the upper Rooms of the Apartments belonging to the Princess Caroline, which burnt two or three Garrets, and the Cloaths belonging to some of her Royal Highness's Domesticks.

Her Royal Highness, who is almost recovered of her Indisposition, was taking the Air on the Downs when this Accident happened, and was obliged to go to Mr. Nash's House for three Days, untill her own was repaired

The Algerines have taken a Ship from Holland bound for the Streights, and carried her into Algiers.

The ——, Michael Loose, a French Ship from the Levant bound to Marseilles, is taken by an English Man of War, and carried into Portmahon.

The Roebuck, Capt. Dalton, from Newfoundland for Portugal, is taken by a Spanish Privateer, and carried into Vigo.

On Saturday last a Person who had been guilty of counterfeiting and forging Sir Thomas De Veil's Name upon a Search-Warrant, and was so indiscreet as to carry it to a Constable to be serv'd, was indicted for that Offence at Hicks's-Hall, and it being fully prov'd to the Satisfaction of the Court and Jury, he receiv'd Sentence to be put in the Pillory at the End of Bow-street, Covent-Garden, and to suffer afterwards two Months Imprisonment.

John Marshal was indicted for assaulting Sarah Pokins, a Girl about sixteen Years of Age, with an Intent to commit a Rape. He was found guilty of the Assault only, and fined 3 s. 4 d

John Mills, alias Wilson, and Thomas Welch, were indicted for defrauding the Wife of Mr. Caufular, a Linnen Draper in Bishopsgate-street, under Pretence of being Farmers and Graziers, of a considerable Quantity of Irish Linnen and Flower'd Cottons; of which they were found guilty. They were sentenced by the Court to stand in the Pillory, to pay a Fine of 3 s. 4 d. each, and to be imprison'd for six Months.

John Mills was a second Time indicted, by the Name of Henry Morse, alias Dye-a bright, for defrauding a Linnen-Draper of Red-lion-street, Spital-fields, to a considerable Value Of which he was also found guilty, and order'd by the Court to be set in the Pillory a second Time, to pay a Fine of 20 Pounds, and to give Security for his good Behaviour during Life. He is said to have follow'd this Practice for several Years, and to have defrauded several Tradesmen of upwards of 2000 l.

Alice Woodward, convicted of uttering several treasonable Expressions against his Majesty, was order'd to pay a Fine of 1 s. and to be imprison'd in Newgate for three Months.

And then the Court adjourn'd to Tuesday the 13th of May next.

Note, Those who have not yet completed their Sets, are desir'd to do it with all Expedition.

On the 12th of May next will be publish'd, The Twenty-fourth and last Book of the Female Spectator.

The only short and infallible Cure for that reigning Disease the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived to the highest or most inveterate Degree, or of ever so many Years Standing, and that without any possible Evacuation, or the least Purging, which, by an universe sustainable Mistake, is generally advised, altho' always found rather to encrease than confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS.

WHICH, without the least Trouble, Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, do at once strike at the true Cause of the Scurvy and entirely destroy it, and all Scorbutick Humours and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never to return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them in Three Days Time are convinced; for they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blotches, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions or Breakings out, Weakness of the Limbs, languid Heaviness of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy emits or often lies conceal'd under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Distempers.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages, (whence proceed Head-Achs, Vapours, and other Indispositions) no Bitters, nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, insomuch that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its shapes and Appearances they assuredly and directly cure the Green-Sickness in Virgins, Worms, of all Kinds, in Young or Old, and almost all other Chronick Diseases, which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illnesses.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and enliven the whole Machine, and as soon as taken make the Patient sensibly lightsome, brisk and vigorous to Admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to procure a sound and healthful State of Body.

But the great Reputation these so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS have so universally gain'd among Persons of Eminence, for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humours, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an easy and agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, some under the Name, and others under other Names; be careful therefore not to be deceived, but be sure to have the Right, which, by the Author's special Appointment, are to be had, only at the Gentlewoman's at the two blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, at 3 s. 6 d a Bottle, with Directions.

The most wonderful cleansing and strengthning Drops for all Sorts of Gleets, and Seminal Weaknesses and Imbecilities of the Generative Parts and Faculties, preventing Miscarriages in Women; and to cleanse and strengthen the Reins, Kidnies and Bladder, cure weak Backs, Strangeries, Gravel, and Stoppage of the Urine, and for which it has gained such Repute, that near 20000 Bottles have been sold since April 1734, that they were first publish'd.

THESE incomparable Drops, which for the above said Disorders are not to be equall'd in the whole Art of Medicines were prescribed by the late Dr Ratcliffe, for a certain noble Lord, who for a long Time had been vex'd with an old obstinate Gleet and Weakness, of which he was cured by them in a few Days, beyond all Expectation, after he had been harrass'd with Electuaries, Bolusses, Pills, Potions, Injections, and a hundred other Medicines, for many Months together inhuman.

The Apothecary who prepared them for him according to a Doctor's Prescription (which he has still upon his File) has made Use of them ever since to Numbers of People in the very worst of Gleets, seminal and genital Imbecilities and Infertilities, Pains in the Back and Reins, Disorders of the Urine and Gravel, &c with the utmost Success and Safety; as also in all Weaknesses from Strains, as well as Venereal Relicts, excessive Coition, Self Pollution, seminal Emissions in Sleep, Falls, Blows, Wrenches, and the like, in both Sexes.

And as they have never once failed him, even in Cases thought to be incurable, he now, for general Good, has made them publick: And that the meaner Sort of People might partake of the Benefit of so divine a Remedy as well as the Rich, he has put them up in Bottles of but 3 s. 6 d. each, tho' for the Excellency of their Effects they are worth their Weight in Gold, more especially as one Bottle of them generally Cures, even in the most draining Gleets, and grievous Relaxations and Weaknesses of the Seminals and Genitals, as also of the Back and Reins, that are.

Nor can there be prepared, by any Art or Skill, a more cleansing and healing, or a more strengthening and invigorating Medicine, or one that can more effectually cure Impotency, or promote Fertility, than this, as every one that but once tries it will try, by their soon finding the Difference between this and other Remedies; for it will do more in one Day towards restoring in these Weaknesses than any others can in ten, and is so corroborating a Nature that it may be entirely rely'd upon for curing speedily and firmly, without Fear of Relapse, even in the tenderest Constitutions, which can hardly be said of any other Medicine; and it is withal so elegantly pleasant to the Palate, and so agreeable to the Stomach that the nicest Persons is delighted with it.

Mr Will. Goldsmith, who us'd to sell these Drops being dead, they are now Sold only by his Son in Law, Mr Johnson, Baker, at the Seven Stars, in Vere-street near Clare Market, sealed up, with Directions, for any Messenger upon asking only for a Bottle of Drops, and paying 3 s 6 d.

For the immediate Cure of BARRENNESS in WOMEN tho' of many Years Continuance, and proceeding from what Cause soever,

And also of IMPOTENCY in MEN, however occasion'd, or of ever so long Standing,

The Famous and Inestimable PROLIFICK ELIXIR;

The richest, rarest, and most powerful Cordial in Nature, is recommended,

BEING the only true and Infallible Cure for Barrenness in Women and Impotency in Men in the Universe, and which at once accomplishes without the least Trouble, even after all other Remedies have fail'd, as Thousands have Experienced, and that by promoting the chearful Circle of the Blood and Juices, raising all the Fluids from their languid depressed State, to one more florid and sparkling, opening all Obstructions, fortifying the Nerves, encreasing the Animal Spirits, restoring a Juvenile Bloom, and evidently replenishing the crispy Fibres of the whole Habit, with a generous Warmth and balmy Moisture, and thereby invigorating it to such a Degree as not to be imagin'd, but by those who have experienced how exceedingly and suddenly it renovates, recruits and powerfully strengthens all the Animal Faculties and Generative Powers in both Sexes. It imparts a bright lively Disposition banishes Melancholy, and inspires Mirth and Gladness of Heart beyond Expression.

Abundance of Ladies, who for several Years were deem'd incurable Patients, have after twice taking it, conceived and became Fruitful, and Great Numbers of Gentlemen, who by rash living or otherwise, had render'd themselves incapable of Procreation, have soon been enabled by it to propagate their Species, insomuch, that very many illustrious Families, who, for want of Children, were almost inconsolable are now blest with happy Issue, and are (under Providence) indebted to this Great Medicine for their Heirs.

It rectifies all Disorders of the Stomach, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digestion, and in all Weakness of Body, or Decay of Constitution of any Kind, is a most infallible Restorative, and even seems to keep back the Effects of Old Age it self.

It is to be taken but a few Drops at a Time, has a very fine Flavour, is pleasant to the Palate, Cordial to the Stomach, and can be had only at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories at 5 s. a Bottle, with Directions.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses (whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Straining, Fullness, or any other Cause whatever) and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain for they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, speedily the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such therefore who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old Running Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetis, Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe and speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by the taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary, now published for a general Good, after having for many Years in private Practice been experienced never once to fail perfectly curing the most stubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels and Urinary Passages, which it almost instantly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative to all Weakness and Decay of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly in cases of the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels, to and from all Degrees, in such that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigued with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weakness of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it to a Degree of Proof, that they will be most agreeably surprised at it.

When a Medicine will so pleasantly accomplish such a safe, speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been try'd in vain, too much cannot be said in Praise of it, and this all who ever took it for any of the above mentioned Purposes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6 s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten time, as much, and by the Author's special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will be compleat Master of his own Case, and perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with succeeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the Foul Disease is entirely extirpated or not.

Note, Ask only for a 6 s. Pot of Balsamick Electuary.

To all Gentlemen, Builders, and Others.

THOMAS ETTERIDGE, COLOURMAN,

(Son in Law to the late Mr. JOSEPH EMERTON, who in his Life time chiefly managed his Business)

At the BELL and SUN, over against Norfolk Street, between St Clement's and the New Church in the Strand, London,

CONTINUES to Sell, in the same Manner his late Father did, all Sorts of COLOURS, ready prepared (at the lowest Prices) that any Gentlemen, Builders, &c. may let their Servants or Labourers to Paint their Houses, only by the Help of a printed Direction, which he gives with his Colours.

He likewise sells to the Ladies all sorts of WATER COLOURS and VARNISH, with every thing necessary for the New Japanning, and gives a printed Direction for the doing of it to the greatest Perfection, to those that buy Colours. Also Italian Powder for cleaning Pictures, and fine Picture Varnish.

He deals only for READY MONEY.

His House faces Norfolk Street, and not Arundel Street, in the Strand.

ANTI-SIPHYLICON

THE only short and most infallible CURE in the Universe for the Venereal Disease from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks, on one Hand, or a feminal Gleet, or Weakness, to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Illness, attended with nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings-out, and all other the most exasperated Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inunction, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to bespeak it the only apposite Remedy, or true Venereal Antidote in the World, and thus some Thousands have, to their great Joy, experienced.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disorder, nor requires Confinement, but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplished, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury may, by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it, Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such, likewise, as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may, by a few Doses of it, entirely free themselves from all Suspicions of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and, on that Account, in all Scorbutick, Scrophulous, and even Leprous Eruptions, or Foulnesses of the Skin, or glandulous Swellings, and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose than any other Medicine, yet known, can by ten.

The Price of this most noble Anti-Siphylicon is but six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient, in most Cases, to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown, against St. Clement's Church-yard, in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is entirely rooted out of their Bodies. Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.

The only True Specifick TINCTURE

For the TOOTH-ACH, and all Disorders and Defects of the TEETH and GUMS whatever, which has given such intire Satisfaction to the Nobility and Gentry for above these Twenty Years past, by its vastly excelling all other Things, either formerly invented or lately contrived for these Purposes;

SINCE one Drop of it gives infallible and instant Ease in the most tormenting Pain, when nothing else will, and not only takes it away in a Moment, but absolutely cures the TOOTH-ACH, so as certainly to prevent its Return.

At only once using, it makes the foulest Teeth most beautifully white, assuredly fastens those that are loose, and infallibly preserves the Teeth from growing rotten, and those a little decayed, from becoming worse: It perfectly cures the Scurvy in the Gums, causing them to grow up to the Teeth again to Admiration, and also occasions a sweet Breath.

It is neither disagreeable to the Smell or Taste, but effectually preserves the Teeth and Gums from all manner of Foulness, Corruption and Putrefaction, keeps them sound, good, and in most beautiful Order, and may be depended upon to answer the Character here given of it, literally, and in every Respect, as Persons innumerable have experienced.

But these inimitable Qualities, and solely inherent Virtues by which it has justly gained such an universal and unparalleled Character, have occasion'd, as usual in such Cases, various and frequent Endeavours to mimick it, some under the same Name, and in the very Words of this Advertisement, and others under other Names; be careful, therefore, to have the right, which can be infallibly relied upon, and which is to be had only at the Author's Appointment, of the Gentlewoman at the [illegible] in Haydon Yard in the Minories, London, at 5 s. a Bottle, with Directions.

Good Allowance to those who take Quantities for Exportation.

The most Noble ELIXIR

For Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Hysterick Diffuse, or Vapors in Women,

IN three Days Time, demonstrates to every one who takes it, that it is absolutely infallible for the thorough Cure of those perplexing Indispositions, even in their highest and most grievous Degrees, where nothing but Horror reigns, where Reasoning is interrupted or depraved, and where the Mind is confused with terrible Perturbations, Anxieties, and Despondency even to Distraction, and the Body afflicted with almost innumerable Ailments.

It's surprizing to see how soon this CELEBRATED ELIXIR (even a few Doses of it only) entirely cures all the vast Variety of Symptoms and induces a new train of chearful and pleasant Ideas, instead of those deep and black thoughts, those direful Apprehensions that so tenaciously dwelt upon the Soul, clouded the Understanding, and destroyed all notion of ever receiving Comfort again; for it occasions a flow of undisturbed Spirits, and causes bright gleams of Joy to break in upon the Heart, and chase away the whole load of depressed and melancholy Imaginations so effectually, that the Patients are suddenly reliev'd both in Body and Mind, and now enjoying perfect Health, free and lively Spirits, steady, serene and gay Thoughts, stand as much amazed that they could be chain'd down to such a dismal way of Thinking, such dreadful Fears, and such Incumbrances, as before, they were hopeless of ever getting free from them.

In a Word, the Effect of this most Noble Elixir, in so suddenly and infallibly curing Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Hysterick Diffuse, or Vapours in Women, in all their Shapes and Appearances, even after all other Remedies have proved fruitless, is irresistible, as the vast Numbers of both Sexes who have been perfectly cured by it, with the utmost Satisfaction declare.

It occasions no manner of Disorder, is pleasant to take, a few Drops of it are a Dose, and is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, at 5 s. a Bottle, with Directions.

This Day is publish'd,

The Sixteenth Edition of

ONANIA: Or, The Heinous Sin of Self-Pollution, and all its frightful Consequences (in both Sexes) considered, with Spiritual and Phisical Advice to those who have already injured themselves by this abominable Practice.

As also the SIXTH EDITION of the SUPPLEMENT to it, both of them Revised and Enlarged, and now printed together in One Volume.

And as the several Passages in the former Impressions, that have been charged with being obscure and ambiguous, are in these cleared up and explained, there will be no more Alterations or Additions made to them.

These Editions contain some further and surprizing Instances of the Mischiefs by that filthy, sinful Commerce with ones self, which is so notoriously practised, as well by the Adult as Youth, Women as Men, Married as Single, to the weakning their Generative Faculties, and hindering Procreation, as their Letters of Complaint to the Author herein inserted, shew.

And, amongst others, a curious Letter from a Lady, with his Answer to it, concerning the Use and Abuse of the Marriage Bed; together with divers Cautionical and other Letters from both Sexes, of some secret unnatural Effeminacies, necessary to be known both by the married and single of each Sex. To which is added,

A Curious PIECE translated out of the Latin, from L. S SCHMEDIER, as it is inserted in the Acta Lipsiensia; concerning the Return of the Seed into the Mass of Blood; well worth the Perusal of Physicians, Surgeons, Anatomists, and all others of Art and Curiosity.

As also Dr. QUINCY's Translation of Dr. CARR's remarkable Answer to a Letter sent by a Divine, concerning two Nuns in Rome, reported to have changed their Sex.

Likewise Dr. DRAKE's and several other Physicians Opinions of Hermaphrodites, and Women brought to a Resemblance of them, by the Practice of Self-Pollution, as was the Case of a young Lady of 18, whose well-wrote Letter to the Author, describing and lamenting her Condition, is (in order to deter others) inserted.

A very grave and learned Divine and Physician having perused this Discourse, before it went to the Press, returned it with his Opinion of it in these Words.

'This little Book ought to be read by all Sorts of People, 'of both Sexes, of what Age, Degree, Profession, or Condition 'soever, guilty or not guilty of the Sin declaimed against in it.'

Is now Sold (Mr ISTED, Bookseller, at the Golden Ball, in Fleetstreet being dead) by CHARLES CORBETT, Bookseller, at Addison's Head, opposite St Dunstan's Church, Fleetstreet, and by HENRY COOK under the Royal Exchange. Price Bound 2 s. 6 d.
